INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

INCIDENT:	Category 3 Force, Broken Right Orbital
IAB FILE NUMBER:	FO 2469423
URN#:	918-15261-0540-263
DATE/TIME:	November 27, 2018, 1515 hours
LOCATION:	[redacted] Newington Street,
	Duarte, California 91780

On Wednesday, November 28, 2018, Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) investigators Sergeants Francois Chang and Israel Renteria responded to Temple Station to investigate a Category 3 Force incident [Exhibit A].

SYNOPSIS

On November 27, 2018, Deputies Dominic Milano and [redacted] (Temple Unit 58B) were on patrol in the same marked, black and white, patrol vehicle. Deputy Milano was the driver. As they travelled west on Newington Street from Broach Avenue, they saw a male Hispanic (Subject [redacted]) riding a bicycle in front of them. Subject [redacted] was riding a bicycle west on Newington Street, near the middle of the road, into the opposing traffic lane in violation of 21650.1 of the California Vehicle Code (CVC).

> IAB Note: 21650.1 CVC defined—A bicycle operated on a roadway, or the shoulder of a highway, shall be operated in the same direction as vehicles are required to be driven upon the roadway.

Deputies Milano and [redacted] conducted a traffic stop of Subject [redacted] to warn and/or cite him for the traffic violation. As Subject [redacted] rode his bicycle, he looked back, over his shoulder, at the deputies' patrol vehicle. Subject [redacted] looked forward and made a quick underhand tossing motion toward the north sidewalk, as if he discarded something, possibly narcotics. As Deputies Milano and [redacted] drove beside Subject [redacted] Deputy [redacted] ordered Subject [redacted] to stop, to which he complied. Deputies Milano and [redacted] stopped their patrol vehicle and exited it.

Deputy [redacted] ordered Subject [redacted] off his bicycle and detained him at the hood of his patrol vehicle, in front of [redacted] Newington Street. During the detention, Subject [redacted] became "upset and agitated" as Deputies Milano and [redacted] tried to obtain his identifying information. For everyone's safety, Deputies Milano and [redacted] handcuffed Subject [redacted] with his hands behind his back and placed him in the backseat of their patrol vehicle without any resistance or use of force.

During the detention, Deputies Milano and [redacted] determined Subject [redacted] did not adequately understand all of their questions due to a language barrier. Subject [redacted] spoke to Deputies Milano and [redacted] in "broken" English and fluent Spanish. Deputies Milano and [redacted] requested, via Sheriff's radio, Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] (Temple Unit 57A) respond to their location to translate [Exhibit B].

> IAB Note: Deputy [redacted] was a Department certified bilingual Spanish speaker (Miscellaneous Documents).

While waiting for Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] to arrive, Deputy Milano walked to the location where Subject [redacted] made the tossing motion prior to the traffic stop. Deputy [redacted] remained with Subject [redacted] at their patrol vehicle. During this time, Subject [redacted] became angry and kicked out the rear, right passenger window, causing shattered glass fragments to fall into the interior of the patrol vehicle and onto the ground, just below the passenger door [Exhibit C].

> IAB Note: IAB investigators measured the area of the shattered glass on the street to be approximately 16' X 10'.

Deputy [redacted] ordered Subject [redacted] to remain in the patrol vehicle, but he did not comply. Subject [redacted] wedged his upper body halfway through the opening of the patrol vehicle's window to escape. Deputy [redacted] sprayed Subject [redacted] in the face with his Department issued Oleoresin Capsicum spray but it was ineffective.

> IAB Note: Oleoresin Capsicum is a chemical compound that irritates the eyes to cause a burning sensation, pain, and temporary blindness. It is commonly referred to as "pepper spray."

Deputy Milano had already begun to return to their patrol vehicle, and was approximately 30-40 feet away, when he heard Deputy [redacted] tell him Subject [redacted] just kicked out their back window and he had pepper sprayed him.

Upon Deputy Milano's return to the patrol vehicle, he saw Subject [redacted] falling out of their patrol vehicle's shattered window. Deputy Milano grabbed Subject [redacted] by the shirt, near the top of his shoulders, and guided him to the ground to prevent him from injuring himself and escaping. Deputy [redacted] requested for emergency assistance via his handheld Sheriff's radio.

Once Subject [redacted] was on the ground, Deputy Milano continued to hold Subject [redacted] facedown by the shoulders while Deputy [redacted] held onto his legs. Subject [redacted] kicked his legs in an attempt to break free from Deputy [redacted] grip. Deputy Milano ordered Subject [redacted] to stop kicking, but he did not comply and brought his legs to his chest in an attempt to stand up. In an effort to prevent Subject [redacted] from cutting himself on the shattered pieces of glass covering the ground, Deputies Milano and [redacted] picked him up by his arms and legs and carried him approximately six feet to a dirt walkway. Subject [redacted] continued to kick and pull his legs to his chest in an apparent attempt to escape. Deputy [redacted] ordered Subject [redacted] to stop fighting and calm down, but he refused to comply.

> IAB Note: IAB investigators measured the width of the dirt walkway to be approximately 10'.

As Deputy Milano held Subject [redacted] facedown by the shoulders, his right hand slipped, above Subject [redacted] shoulder, near his face area. Subject [redacted] turned his head to his right and bit Deputy Milano's right uniform shirt sleeve. Deputy Milano reacted by immediately pulling his right hand away and punched Subject [redacted] once on the right side of his face with his right fist. The punch took immediate effect and Subject [redacted] stopped biting.

During the struggle, Deputies Milano and [redacted] shifted positions on Subject [redacted] Deputy Milano attempted to gain control of Subject [redacted] legs while Deputy [redacted] gained control of his upper body. However, Subject [redacted] continued to kick his legs, attempted to stand up, and screamed incomprehensibly. Deputies Milano and [redacted] continued ordering Subject [redacted] to calm down and stop fighting to no avail.

Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] (Temple Unit 58) arrived simultaneously and assisted in hobbling Subject [redacted] The strength of Subject [redacted] kicking his legs pushed Deputy [redacted] backward several times. However, the deputies were successful in placing the hobble around Subject [redacted] legs. Eventually, Subject [redacted] stopped fighting. Deputies picked up and carried Subject [redacted] to a patrol vehicle. Deputies placed Subject [redacted] into the back seat of Deputy [redacted] patrol vehicle without further use of force.

Subject [redacted] was treated on scene for his injuries by Los Angeles County Fire Engine #169, under the supervision of Fire Captain Cleveland. Sergeant Anthony Osterman, #[redacted] arrived on scene and was immediately notified of the force used on Subject [redacted] Subject [redacted] was transported by ambulance to Arcadia Methodist Hospital for additional medical attention. Subject [redacted] was later transferred and admitted to Children's Hospital of Los Angeles for a broken right orbital.

INVESTIGATOR'S OBSERVATIONS

Approximately two hours transpired from the time of the use of force notification to IAB to the arrival of IAB investigators. Upon the arrival of IAB investigators, the field investigation had been concluded and Subject [redacted] had been transferred from Arcadia Methodist Hospital to Children's Hospital Los Angeles where he was admitted. Subject [redacted] did not allow Subject [redacted] to interview with IAB investigators on the advice of their attorney, James Tedford.

Subject [redacted] and his [redacted] did allow IAB investigators to take pictures of his injuries [Exhibit E]. IAB investigators saw and took photographs of the following injuries:

- Swollen and bleeding right eye, with two pieces of medical tape, above and below the eye
- Scabs to right knee and abrasion to left shin
- Abrasions and redness to the tops of both hands near the index finger knuckles
- Slight redness to middle of back

IAB investigators did follow-up investigation in the area where the use of force occurred during daylight hours. IAB investigators searched for witnesses and took measurements of the area.

LIGHTING AND WEATHER CONDITIONS

The incident occurred during daytime hours. The weather was clear.

WEAPON USED BY DEPUTIES

None.

WEAPON USED BY SUBJECT [redacted]

None.

PROPERTY DAMAGE

The rear, right passenger window of the Sheriff's patrol vehicle was shattered. The cost of the damage was estimated by Jose Sanchez (Temple Station Penske mechanic) to be $961.50 [Exhibit C].

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION AND CHARGES FILED

Subject [redacted] was detained by Temple Station personnel for the following crimes:

- 243(b) PC—Battery on a peace officer
- 594(b) PC—Felony vandalism

The criminal investigation into this incident was handled by Temple Station Detective [redacted] # [redacted]. The District Attorney's Office declined to file criminal charges on Subject [redacted] since he refused to provide a statement to Sheriff's detectives coupled with detectives not having a "GLADYS R" admonition by Subject [redacted] [Exhibit F].

> IAB Note: "GLADYS R" admonition is a form indicating a child, under age 14, understands right from wrong stemming from case law decision.

STATEMENTS

The following narratives are intended only as a synopsis of the interviews which have been paraphrased for clarification purposes. Additional information and precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interviews and verbatim transcriptions.

WITNESS STATEMENTS

Witness [redacted]

On November 28, 2018, Sergeants Francois Chang and Israel Renteria interviewed Witness [redacted] at his residence. The interview was video recorded by Lieutenant Dinh.

On November 27, 2018, Witness [redacted] returned home to [redacted] and saw deputies standing next Subject [redacted] who was seated on a curb. One of the deputies was "checking out his stuff." Subject [redacted] stood up and sat down a few times, but it appeared everything was ok. Witness [redacted] went inside his house. Approximately five minutes later, Witness [redacted] heard a "big thump" as if something had hit a wall.

Witness [redacted] looked through a screen door in the direction of the deputies. Witness [redacted] had a view of the deputies and Subject [redacted] as he stood at the threshold of his house's front door. Witness [redacted] heard Subject [redacted] screaming as if he was in pain. Two deputies were trying to control Subject [redacted] who was lying on the ground. One of the deputies tried to control Subject [redacted] legs and simultaneously appeared to radio for back-up. Witness [redacted] saw the deputies try to handcuff and "hogtie" Subject [redacted] as Subject [redacted] lay on the ground.

Initially there were only two deputies but several more arrived approximately five minutes after Witness [redacted] saw Subject [redacted] struggling with the deputies. Witness [redacted] heard the deputies tell Subject [redacted] to "hold still" as they struggled on the dirt walkway. Subject [redacted] eventually calmed down and the deputies carried him to a patrol vehicle. Due to the number of deputies, approximately ten, Witness [redacted] could not see in detail how Subject [redacted] was restrained in the handcuffs and hobbled. Based on how the deputies carried Subject [redacted] Witness [redacted] assumed Subject [redacted] handcuffs and hobble were connected to each other.

Witness [redacted]

On November 28, 2018, Sergeants Francois Chang and Israel Renteria interviewed Witness [redacted] at his residence. The interview was video recorded by Lieutenant Dinh.

On November 27, 2018, Witness [redacted] returned home to [redacted] and saw deputies standing next Subject [redacted] who was seated on a curb. Witness [redacted] went inside his house. Approximately ten minutes later, Witness [redacted] to Witness [redacted] told Witness [redacted] the deputies had Subject [redacted] on the ground. Witness [redacted] went to the front door and watched the deputies and Subject [redacted] through the screen door.

Subject [redacted] was lying facedown on the ground, screaming as if he was in pain. The deputies were trying to hold Subject [redacted] and appeared to be handcuffing him. Subject [redacted] was resisting by moving around and was "fighting" with the deputies. Additional deputies arrived and assisted with calming Subject [redacted] The deputies carried Subject [redacted] to a patrol vehicle and guided him inside it. Paramedics arrived soon after.

Witness [redacted] could not hear what was said between the deputies and Subject [redacted] nor did he see the detailed actions between them. Witness [redacted] assumed Subject [redacted] might have bitten one of the deputies since a deputy retrieved hand wipes from a patrol vehicle. Witness [redacted] took a photograph of the incident with his cell phone showing his point of view by the screen door. The photograph depicts two deputies kneeling on a dirt walkway where the use of force occurred [Exhibit G].

Witness [redacted]

On August 28, 2019, Sergeant Francois Chang interviewed Witness [redacted] at Monrovia High School. Witness [redacted] was present for the interview.

On November 27, 2018, Witness [redacted] and his [redacted] were walking west, on a sidewalk along Newington Street, around 1520 hours.

> IAB Note: Detective [redacted] interviewed [redacted] and documented his statement in a supplemental report [Exhibit A].

Witness [redacted] was [redacted] with Subject [redacted] and saw Subject [redacted] bicycle on the ground. Witness [redacted] heard Subject [redacted] yelling while on the ground from approximately 15 feet away. Subject [redacted] was yelling for "help" and for "the deputies to get off of him." The deputies and Subject [redacted] were all on the ground.

Subject [redacted] was "thrashing violently on the ground" as two deputies tried to restrain him. Subject [redacted] tried to get away from the deputies, but the deputies continued to hold Subject [redacted] down and prevented him from getting away. One of the deputies held onto Subject [redacted] hands behind his back as the other deputy put his knee on Subject [redacted] neck. Witness [redacted] did not see deputies strike Subject [redacted]

The deputies commanded Subject [redacted] to "stop resisting" and to "remain calm" but he refused. Witness [redacted] knew Subject [redacted] spoke limited English, and should have understood the deputies' commands. Witness [redacted] did not see any injuries to Subject [redacted] Witness [redacted] left the area while the deputies struggled with Subject [redacted]

SUBJECT STATEMENT

Subject [redacted]

Subject [redacted] declined to provide a statement to IAB investigators at the direction of his [redacted] and advice of his attorney, James Tedford. However, Subject [redacted] provided a statement to Temple Station Watch Commander, Lieutenant Marsha Williams, prior to the arrival of IAB investigators [Exhibit H].

Lieutenant Williams interviewed Subject [redacted] at Arcadia Methodist Hospital on November 27, 2018, at 1710 hours. Sergeant Osterman videotaped the interview. Deputy [redacted] was present and translated during the interview.

Subject [redacted] said he left school and went home, riding his bicycle. While riding his bicycle, Subject [redacted] saw two cops, got scared and fled on his bicycle. As he fled, the deputies grabbed him, took him to the ground, and cursed at him in English. Subject [redacted] became upset and resisted the deputies. While Subject [redacted] fought with the deputies, an unknown female appeared and told the deputies in Spanish to leave him alone. The deputies ignored the lady, handcuffed him, and placed him into a patrol vehicle. The deputies told Subject [redacted] he was under arrest and going to jail.

> IAB Note: Later in this same interview, Subject [redacted] changed his story and said, upon contact by the deputies, they pushed him off his bicycle to the ground, grabbed him, and placed him against a patrol car. The deputies searched him while telling him he was in possession of "weed." The deputies then placed him into a patrol vehicle.

Once in the patrol vehicle, the same unknown lady told Subject [redacted] to break the window. Subject [redacted] broke the patrol vehicle's window and tried to escape. A deputy sprayed something in his face, but he continued trying to escape. A deputy grabbed him and hit him in the face, chest, and back. A deputy hit him three times in the face and once on the neck. The deputies kept hitting him in the face. Subject [redacted] told the deputies they were hurting him and to let him go. The deputies wrapped his feet with something and placed him in the back seat of a patrol vehicle.

Subject [redacted] complained of pain to his wrists, face, neck, and middle back.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENTS

Involved Employee - Deputy Dominic Milano

On July 23, 2019, Deputy Milano was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Chang and Chris Oakley, #[redacted] at IAB. He was represented by Amy Johnson from Rains, Lucia, Stern, St. Phalle & Silver law firm.

On November 27, 2018, Deputy Milano worked Unit 58B in a marked, black and white, patrol vehicle with Deputy [redacted] While on patrol, they saw Subject [redacted] riding a bicycle in the middle of a residential road. Subject [redacted] was zigzagging back and forth into the oncoming traffic lane in violation of 21650.1 CVC.

Deputy Milano saw Subject [redacted] make an underhand tossing motion as he rode his bicycle. This concerned Deputy Milano because persons carrying contraband typically discard it before making contact with the police. This is done in an effort to get rid of evidence. This was a known gang area whereby narcotic sales, narcotic use, and gun-related burglaries have occurred.

Deputy Milano turned on his forward-facing red light as he pulled up behind, and to the side, of Subject [redacted] Deputy [redacted] told Subject [redacted] to stop his bike. Subject [redacted] complied. Deputies Milano and [redacted] stopped their patrol vehicle and exited it. Deputies Milano and [redacted] spoke to Subject [redacted] and asked him identifying questions. Although Subject [redacted] appeared to have initially understood the deputies, he suddenly could not understand English. For example, during the initial contact with deputies, Subject [redacted] asked why they were stopping him and stated he did nothing wrong. As Deputies Milano and [redacted] spoke to Subject [redacted] he appeared to become "agitated." Subject [redacted] would speak some English and then not understand it, began making quick hand gestures, stomped his feet, and had an angry expression on his face.

Deputies Milano and [redacted] feared Subject [redacted] was going to get irate. Deputies Milano and [redacted] handcuffed Subject [redacted] and placed him in the back seat of their patrol vehicle for everyone's safety. Subject [redacted] complied with the deputies' requests. Deputy Milano requested, via Sheriff's radio, Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] to his location to help with translation. Deputies Milano and [redacted] tried to explain to Subject [redacted] the reason for the stop, but Subject [redacted] kept saying he did not understand English.

Deputy Milano walked away from their patrol vehicle to search the area where he believed Subject [redacted] discarded contraband. Deputy Milano searched for approximately five minutes but did not find anything. As Deputy Milano returned to his patrol vehicle, from approximately 40 feet away, he heard Deputy [redacted] yell to him Subject [redacted] had kicked out their patrol vehicle's window. Deputy [redacted] also told Deputy Milano he pepper sprayed Subject [redacted] Deputy Milano jogged back to their patrol vehicle. Deputy Milano saw Subject [redacted] sitting on the window seal of his patrol vehicle and thought Subject [redacted] was falling out of the window frame of the vehicle. Half of Subject [redacted] body was outside of the patrol vehicle with only his legs left inside it.

Deputy Milano grabbed Subject [redacted] by his shirt, next to his shoulder, and guided him to the ground. Deputy Milano wanted to prevent Subject [redacted] from falling and hurting himself. There was shattered glass littered on the ground, next to the patrol vehicle. Deputy Milano knew Subject [redacted] was handcuffed and would not be able to prevent injury to himself from a fall.

Once Subject [redacted] was facedown on the ground, Deputy Milano grabbed onto his shoulders while Deputy [redacted] grabbed onto his feet to control Subject [redacted] Deputies Milano and [redacted] gave several orders for Subject [redacted] to stop kicking, but he did not comply, brought his knees to his chest, and attempted to stand up. It was difficult to control Subject [redacted] Deputy [redacted] suggested they move Subject [redacted] to another area since there was glass on the ground. Deputies Milano and [redacted] picked up Subject [redacted] and moved him to a dirt walkway.

While on the dirt walkway, Subject [redacted] acted like a "fish out of water." Subject [redacted] flailed his body, kicked his legs, and tried to break loose from the deputies' control. Deputies Milano and [redacted] made numerous commands, in English, for Subject [redacted] stop kicking and relax, but he did not comply. Subject [redacted] "thrashing" about caused Deputy Milano's right hand to slip forward, above Subject [redacted] right shoulder, near his face. Subject [redacted] turned his head toward Deputy Milano's right hand and bit the sleeve of his uniform shirt. Deputy Milano was afraid of being bitten and contracting a disease transmitted through saliva. Deputy Milano knew Subject [redacted] was already pepper sprayed but was ineffective. Therefore, Deputy Milano reacted by immediately punching Subject [redacted] once, on the right side of his face, with his right hand.

The punch took immediate effect and Subject [redacted] ceased further attempts to bite Deputy Milano. Subject [redacted] continued kicking his legs and trying to stand up. Deputies Milano and [redacted] held Subject [redacted] on the ground as best they could until Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] arrived. Upon Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] arrival, they hobbled Subject [redacted] Once hobbled, Subject [redacted] calmed down.

Paramedics arrived and treated Subject [redacted] for injuries. Deputy Milano could not see what injuries Subject [redacted] had since there was pepper spray residue on his face. Deputy Milano immediately reported his use of force to Sergeant Osterman.

Involved Employee - Deputy [redacted]

On July 23, 2019, Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Chang and Chris Oakley, #[redacted] at IAB. He was represented by Amy Johnson from Rains, Lucia, Stern, St. Phalle & Silver law firm.

On November 27, 2018, Deputy [redacted] worked Unit 58B in a marked, black and white, patrol vehicle with Deputy Milano. While on patrol, on the 900 block of Newington Street, they saw Subject [redacted] riding a bicycle west on Newington Street. Subject [redacted] was weaving in and out of the middle lane, into oncoming traffic. Subject [redacted] was not riding on the right side of the roadway as required by the California Vehicle Code.

Deputies Milano and [redacted] initiated a traffic stop of Subject [redacted] for the vehicle code violation. As they initiated the traffic stop, Subject [redacted] looked back toward them and made a tossing motion with his hand. Deputy [redacted] did not see anything leave Subject [redacted] hand. However, Subject [redacted] actions, coupled with Deputy [redacted] knowledge of it being a gang area, rife with narcotic traffic, led him to believe Subject [redacted] might have discarded narcotics.

Deputy Milano drove behind Subject [redacted] and activated the patrol vehicle's light bar, projecting red and blue lights. Deputy [redacted] ordered Subject [redacted] in English, to stop through his open passenger window. Subject [redacted] stopped his bicycle and stood over it. Deputies Milano and [redacted] stopped their patrol vehicle and exited it. Deputy [redacted] requested Subject [redacted] to get off his bicycle and walk to the hood of their patrol vehicle. As Deputy [redacted] asked Subject [redacted] for identifying information, he realized Subject [redacted] had difficulty understanding his questions since it appeared Subject [redacted] spoke Spanish as his primary language. Deputy [redacted] attempted to speak to Subject [redacted] in "broken" Spanish, but Subject [redacted] became "agitated" and did not understand everything he was saying. Subject [redacted] gave Deputy [redacted] several different identifying names.

Deputies Milano and [redacted] handcuffed Subject [redacted] with his hands to his back, checked him for weapons, and removed his shoes. Although Subject [redacted] tensed up and was evasive with Deputy [redacted] questions, he was not resistive. Subject [redacted] complied with the deputies' orders and sat in the back seat of their patrol vehicle. Deputy Milano requested for Spanish speaking deputies to respond to their location. Deputy Milano walked to the area, within earshot of Deputy [redacted] where Subject [redacted] made the tossing motion to search for contraband. No contraband was found nor did Subject [redacted] ever admit to throwing anything. Deputy [redacted] remained at the patrol vehicle. Deputy [redacted] searched for identifying information within the contents he removed from Subject [redacted] pockets and questioned him in Spanish and English.

While Deputy [redacted] was at the front hood of his patrol vehicle, sorting through Subject [redacted] belongings, he saw an unknown lady at the rear, right passenger window. The lady was peering through the back window, while talking to another unknown lady via cellphone speakerphone. The lady next to the patrol vehicle did not speak English; however, the lady on the other end of the speaker phone spoke English and translated for Deputy [redacted] She said Subject [redacted] was ingesting methamphetamine with her 13 year old daughter whom she followed to confront him about it. She did not know Subject [redacted] name but recognized him. The lady did not have any information relevant to Deputy [redacted] investigation and left the area without saying who she was.

Deputy [redacted] heard a loud "thump" from the back of his patrol vehicle. Deputy [redacted] looked at Subject [redacted] and saw him kick the back window out, completely shattering it, with his sock-covered feet. Subject [redacted] "popped" his head through the shattered window and tried to escape. Deputy [redacted] immediately requested for assistance via Sheriff's radio and yelled to Deputy Milano of Subject [redacted] attempted escape. Deputy [redacted] ordered Subject [redacted] in English, to stay in the patrol vehicle, but he did not comply.

Deputy [redacted] pepper sprayed Subject [redacted] to stop him from escaping, but it was not effective. Subject [redacted] continued trying to escape and had his head and torso out of the patrol vehicle's rear passenger window. Deputy [redacted] was worried Subject [redacted] could potentially break his neck or injure himself on the shattered glass from falling out of the patrol vehicle and onto the pavement. Deputy [redacted] knew there was no way for Subject [redacted] to break his fall with his hands since he was handcuffed with his hands behind his back.

Deputy Milano ran toward their patrol vehicle, grabbed hold of Subject [redacted] by pulling him out of the patrol vehicle by his clothing, and guided him to the ground, onto his stomach. Deputy [redacted] suggested they move Subject [redacted] to a dirt walkway to prevent injury to Subject [redacted] and themselves from the shattered glass. Deputies Milano and [redacted] each grabbed one side of Subject [redacted] picked him up, and carried him approximately five to ten feet to a dirt walkway on the north side of the street.

Subject [redacted] was "pretty strong" as he kicked and screamed while Deputies Milano and [redacted] tried to control him on the ground. Deputy [redacted] put his left leg near the top part of Subject [redacted] shoulders, toward his neck and his right leg was on his back. Deputy Milano was near Subject [redacted] right shoulder and had one hand on his shirt. Subject [redacted] turned his head to his right and appeared to have bitten Deputy Milano's right hand. Deputy Milano immediately reacted by punching Subject [redacted] once in the face near his right eye. The punch took immediate effect and Subject [redacted] stopped biting. However, Subject [redacted] continued kicking his legs and screaming. Deputy Milano was in danger of being kicked by Subject [redacted]

Deputies Milano and [redacted] continued giving Subject [redacted] orders to stop fighting and calm down, but he did not comply. Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] arrived and hobbled Subject [redacted] legs. The hobble was effective in stopping Subject [redacted] from kicking. Thereafter, Deputies Milano, [redacted] and [redacted] escorted Subject [redacted] to a patrol vehicle where he was detained in the back seat.

Deputy [redacted] did not see any injuries to Subject [redacted] face due to the orange-type film of pepper spray on his face. Subject [redacted] was treated in the field and transported to the hospital via ambulance. Deputy [redacted] immediately reported his use of force to Sergeant Osterman.

Involved Employee - Deputy [redacted]

On July 10, 2019 Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeant Chang at Temple Station.

On November 27, 2018, Deputy [redacted] worked Unit 57A in a patrol vehicle with her trainee, Deputy [redacted] Deputy [redacted] was the driver. While at another call for service, Deputy [redacted] heard a backup request over sheriff's radio. The reason for the request was because Subject [redacted] was trying to break a window in the back of a patrol vehicle. The backup request was then upgraded to an assistance request, requiring an emergency response. Deputy [redacted] drove code-3 to Deputies Milano and [redacted] location. Deputy [redacted] arrived at the same time as Deputy [redacted]

Upon Deputy [redacted] arrival, she saw Deputy Milano holding Subject [redacted] facedown on a dirt walkway. Subject [redacted] kept moving his body from the ground by lifting up his chest in an attempt to get up. Subject [redacted] also moved his body from side to side, attempted to turn, and kicked his feet up and down. Subject [redacted] had already been handcuffed with his hands behind his back and was bleeding from his face. A deputy ordered Subject [redacted] to stay in place and stop fighting. Deputy Milano and Subject [redacted] struggled with each other for approximately two to four minutes.

Since Subject [redacted] was kicking his legs, Deputy [redacted] deployed her hobble and handed it to Deputy [redacted] Deputy [redacted] placed the hobble around Subject [redacted] ankles. Deputy [redacted] assisted Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] by tightening it. Deputies then carried Subject [redacted] about five feet away to a patrol vehicle and placed him inside it. Subject [redacted] complained of a burning sensation to his face. Subject [redacted] was treated in the field by Fire Department personnel for possible injuries and later transported to a hospital. Deputy [redacted] reported the use of force she used and witnessed to Sergeant Osterman who was on scene.

On July 18, 2019, Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeant Chang at Temple Station.

On November 27, 2018, Deputy [redacted] worked Unit 57A in a patrol vehicle with his [redacted] Deputy [redacted] While on patrol, Deputies [redacted] and [redacted] got an LTAC radio request for them to respond to the location of Deputies Milano and [redacted] for an unknown reason. While enroute, the request was upgraded to an emergency response.

> IAB Note: LTAC is a local tactical channel assigned to a station/s. This channel is used for tactical coordination within a station area.

Upon Deputy [redacted] arrival, he saw Deputies Milano and [redacted] detaining Subject [redacted] on the walkway, but he could not remember their positioning. Subject [redacted] was struggling with the deputies by violently kicking his legs and swinging his body from side to side. Despite Deputies Milano and [redacted] being “decent sized guys,” they were getting moved around and losing control of Subject [redacted] Deputy [redacted] was concerned Subject [redacted] was trying to escape or get up to fight deputies. Deputy [redacted] went to assist the deputies by placing himself on the left side of Subject [redacted] body. Deputy [redacted] knelt next to Subject [redacted] and used both hands to hold the left side of Subject [redacted] body and legs to stop him from moving and kicking. Deputy [redacted] was pushed backward every time Subject [redacted] moved violently. This concerned Deputy [redacted] because he was afraid Subject [redacted] was going to kick him in the face and/or cause him to lose balance.

Despite Deputy [redacted] being six feet tall, weighing 200 pounds, he was unable to fully control part of Subject [redacted] body. Deputy [redacted] believed Subject [redacted] continued attempts at kicking demonstrated his intent to kick deputies. Deputy [redacted] heard the voices of Subject [redacted] and the deputies but was not focused on what they were saying. Deputy [redacted] received a hobble from Deputy [redacted] and hobbled Subject [redacted] The hobble was effective at preventing Subject [redacted] from kicking his legs separately; however, he was still able to kick his feet in unison. Subject [redacted] was "strong" and still moving, but he eventually calmed down.

Two to three minutes had transpired from the time Deputy [redacted] arrived and saw Subject [redacted] struggling with deputies to the time Subject [redacted] was hobbled and calmed down. Once Subject [redacted] had calmed down, deputies escorted him to a patrol vehicle and detained him in the back seat. Deputy [redacted] asked Subject [redacted] for his identifying information and conducted a criminal check of him. Deputy [redacted] saw a lot of dirt on Subject [redacted] face and recalled seeing a contusion around the cheek area, beneath one of his eyes. Subject [redacted] was treated in the field by paramedics. Deputy [redacted] reported his use of force to Sergeant Osterman.

On July 17, 2019 Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Francois Chang and John Steele, #[redacted] at IAB. She was represented by Sherry Lawrence of Stone Busailah, LLP law firm.

On November 27, 2018, Deputy [redacted] worked Unit 58 in a patrol vehicle by herself. Deputy [redacted] heard a radio call by Deputies Milano and [redacted] requesting for additional deputies to respond to their location due to an uncooperative person. Deputy [redacted] drove to Deputies Milano and [redacted] location and arrived in three to five minutes.

Upon Deputy [redacted] arrival, she saw Deputies Milano and [redacted] on the ground, holding down Subject [redacted] Although Subject [redacted] was handcuffed with his hands behind his back, he was quickly "thrashing" his body trying to get away from the deputies. Subject [redacted] was facedown as he kicked his legs to get deputies off him. The deputies gave commands for Subject [redacted] to stop and quit moving.

Deputy [redacted] was concerned for Deputies Milano and [redacted] safety knowing they could be kicked by Subject [redacted] Subject [redacted] continued to struggle with Deputies Milano and [redacted] until Deputy [redacted] provided a hobble to them.

Deputy [redacted] helped restrain Subject [redacted] by putting the looped end of the hobble around his feet and cinching it with the assistance of other deputies. The hobble was effective in helping to control Subject [redacted] feet, albeit he was still thrashing his body and trying to kick.

Once deputies applied the hobble to Subject [redacted] feet, Deputies Milano, [redacted] and [redacted] picked him up by the legs and upper torso. The deputies carried Subject [redacted] seven to ten feet to a patrol vehicle and placed him inside it. Deputy [redacted] lost grip of Subject [redacted] as she also helped pick him up due to the confined space amongst personnel.

Subject [redacted] was treated in the field for possible injuries. Deputy [redacted] saw blood on Subject [redacted] face but could not remember any specific injuries.
